

Who is this Conference for?

This conference is for teachers who are “teacher leaders”. Teacher leaders are teachers who are working to be the best in their profession by working with their fellow educators, involved in teaching others in their profession, involved in continued professional development or recognized by others in their profession. The following ASCD article outlines typical roles of teacher leaders.

Ten Roles for Teacher Leaders